AgedCareAI

Innovation Philosophy

Intelligence for your people. Governance for your organisation.

AgedCareAI helps aged care providers save time, stay audit ready and keep control, with your information kept inside your own environment.

AGEDCAREAI

Intelligence

A secure AI assistant set up around your organisation and connected to your own data.

- Answers in seconds, drawn from your own policies and records
- Letters, reports and notes drafted for your team to review
- Routine daily tasks handled for your team
- The right view for every role, from the care floor to the boardroom

AGEDCAREAI

Governance

Policies, improvements, meetings, risks and board reporting in one governed place.

- Always current and ready for the auditor
- Every improvement has an owner and a due date
- Board packs ready in minutes, not days
- Staff read, confirm and ask questions on their phone

Why providers choose AgedCareAI

Closed and secure

Your information stays private and is never used to train public AI.

Works with your systems

Connected to the sources your team already uses. Nothing replaced.

People stay in charge

AI drafts. Your team reviews, decides and approves.

Five days became half an hour.

At St Anna's Aged Care in Adelaide, a single site home with no corporate office and no IT department, a compliance response that took one or two people five days by hand now takes around half an hour. Innovation Philosophy's figures.
